

Michigan Historical Museum

The Michigan Historical Museum opened in the Michigan Library and Historical Center in March 1989. It is the fourth facility to house and exhibit the state's historical collections. This is the south entrance. The State Seal of Michigan is visible over the Allegan Street entrance on the north side of the building. The building surrounds a white pine tree, the state tree of Michigan, and the Great Lakes Fountain. Between this entrance and the parking lot, visitors pass by the Polaris Ring sculpture.
